

The "do not call" registry is an important public function by the Federal and New Jersey Government. It should not be watered down because some friends of the administration does not like it. We do live in a Democracy, whether some people like it or not.